

Transparency, lawyers' ethics, and party representation in international arbitration: A roundtable discussion

Florida International University College of Law, November 5th 2014
Large Courtroom (RDB 1000), Noon to 2:30pm

Featured speakers:

- Elena Gutiérrez de Cortazar, Corte de Arbitraje de Madrid (Madrid)
 - The new UNCITRAL Rules on Transparency
- Renato Grion, Pinheiro Neto Advogados (São Paulo)
 - The new IBA Guidelines on Party Representation
- J. Eloy Anzola, Independent Arbitrator (Miami)
 - Impact of the new rules on the work of arbitrators
- Alfredo De Jesus O., Alfredo De Jesús O. | Transnational Arbitration, Litigation & Business Law (Paris, Caracas)
 - Impact of the new rules on the work of counsel and experts

This event is presented and sponsored by: FIU College of Law's International Law Students Association (ILSA), FIU's Global Legal Studies Initiative, and the Instituto Latinoamericano de Arbitraje (ILdeA)

This event is free and open to the public but reservations are required.
Lunch will be served